MEET THE CHEF

- Michelle is from Warren County, NJ and has been cooking professionally for over 10 years.
- She was taught at an early age to love being in the kitchen by her grandmother and father.
- She graduated with a degree in psychology from Stockton University. After college, Michelle worked with City Year NYC (Americorps), and then worked at a market in Brooklyn, where she learned she had a natural ability for combining food and spices, and felt instantly comfortable cooking.
- Michelle has been fortunate to work for establishments focused on health and a range of dietary specialties such as kosher and vegan; instilling the importance of cooking healthy, delicious meals, while taking into account the wide spectrum of people's needs and preferences.
- When not at work you can still find Michelle in the kitchen or out in her garden. She enjoys reading and hiking, and shares a beautiful life with her husband, two cats and snake.
- Michelle's goal is to bring as much joy to as many people as possible through great food and thoughtful connection.
